

Gentlemen: Perhaps our State's Do Not Call List may be one of the strictest, however, the telemarketers are relentless and peace and quiet at dinner time can now be enjoyed as well as dinner conversation with our children. Also, the elderly fall prey to many slick operators and we owe them a little protection from these people.

Thank you.